Foresee Move To Sidetrack Senator Glass

Undercover Administration Move Comes To Surface In Congressional Row

GLASS POWERFUL AS COMMITTEE HEAD

Administration Leaders Seek To Remove His Power Over Measures

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHISON
International News Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, April 2.—An undercover administration to strip Senator Carter Glass (D) of Virginia, of authority over emergency appropriation bills came to the surface today in the bitter congressional row over President Roosevelt's $4,880,000 work relief bill.

As chairman of the powerful senate appropriation committee, Glass has charge of emergency appropriation bills in the senate. The administration would sidetrack him and turn control of such bills over to Senator James F. Byrnes (D) of South Carolina, personal friend of Mr. Roosevelt.

The shot that brought this maneuvering into the open came from Senator Robinson, floor leader, who complained the senate conferees—headed by Glass—were "unfriendly" to the president's bill. He said the time might come when he would ask the senate to handle it in conference. This would mean the substitution of Byrnes for Glass as commander of administration forces.

Would See Intraparty Warfare
If the administration carries out this threat, it would provoke the worst intraparty warfare in the history of the senate. The firework would surpass anything ever staged by the Republicans in former years when the regulars read a small insurgent group out of the party.

There were some rumors Glass would resign as a senate conferee on the relief bill in order to placate the administration. His closest friends denied this and said he would fight for his principles to the bitter end.

The controversy raged over action of the conferees in including a phrase which limited expenditures of $900,000,000 on public projects, so that one-third of the sum must be spent on direct labor. The conferees supported this limitation on the ground that the whole appropriation was intended solely to provide work for persons now on relief rolls.

HOUSE APPROVES RELIEF PROBE IN LAWRENCE CO.

(BULLETIN)

International News Service

HARRISBURG, April 2.—By unanimous vote, the House today had given its approval to the resolution of Rep. William Eroe, Lawrence, for an investigation of the Lawrence County Emergency Relief Board.

Speaker Wilson G. Sarig shortly will appoint a committee of five House members to conduct the investigation. The committee, under terms of the resolution, will have full powers to subpoena. Hearings probably will be held in New Castle.

Cancel Contracts Of Teachers In Schools Then Re-elect Them

Contracts of all teachers in the New Castle Public Schools were cancelled on Monday night, April 1, in a special session of the New Castle School Board. A few minutes later the teachers were all re-elected for the coming year at the same salary figure as contained in the old contracts but with a "saving clause" in the contract which permits the board to take advantage of any legislation which may be passed during the present session of the General Assembly.

The clause, which was suggested by the Superintendent of Public Instruction is as follows: "and such adjustments as may be authorized by law or approved by the Superintendent of Public Instruction." The clause is fitted into the paragraph covering regulation of salaries.

May Increase Taxes
As the law now stands the School Code is the same as it was before the beginning of the 1933 session when permission was granted for certain decreases in teachers' salaries. The law was for two years (Continued On Page Two)

Police Of City Apprehend Two Motorists Who Violate Ordinance

CITIZENS SHOWING INTEREST, CHIEF SAYS

Two autoists were presented with police tags yesterday for having violated lesson No. 1, issued by Chief of Police John F. Haven which stated that double parking of motor vehicles is prohibited in New Castle. The arrests were the first for that particular offense this week although several other autoists have been arrested for exceeding the parking time limit and parking too close to street intersections.

The chief announced this morning that since Saturday he has received from citizens requests to publish lessons concerning various phases of automobilizing. He said that the public's interest has been aroused and that traffic is something that requires constant supervision.

President And Party Visit Fishing Grounds Off Bahama Group On Nourmahal Today

(International News Service)
MIAMI, April 2.—President Roosevelt and his companions on the Astor yacht Nourmahal today were on their old fishing grounds of last year, southeast of Long Island, of the Bahama group. A brief report from the Nourmahal said: "Spent most of the day exploring the narrow river leading to the lagoon on Crooked island. Party caught several different varieties of sunburn. At four proceeded to southeast point of Long Island where both ships anchored near the spot where we fished last July 4 from the U. S. S. Houston."

General Chairman Alec Samuels announced today that final plans have been completed for the annual three-day membership drive of the New Castle Young Men's Christian Association which will be formally opened this evening at 6:15 o'clock, with a dinner in the Y. M. C. A. President Fred L. Rentz, of The News, will be the principal speaker. General Chairman Samuels will deliver a "pep" address. Judy Sypher and "Red" Williams will be in charge of the music. Following dinner this evening, an army of 140 volunteer campaigners will set out to solicit 800 new and renewal members, during the next three days. (Continued On Page Two)

FEDERAL RELIEF FUNDS FOR WEEK GIVEN TO STATE

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, April 2.—Gov. George H. Earle today announced receipt of four checks from the federal emergency relief administration totaling $3,050,000, sufficient to carry relief to more than 1,700,000 Pennsylvanians through the first week in April. Today's checks brought the total of federal money received by the state since Governor Earle took office last January 15 to $50,982,186. The relief board has estimated a total of $20,709,000 will be required for April but Federal Relief Administrator Harry L. Hopkins has warned the state will receive no more funds unless it contributes at least $5,000,000 a month beginning April 15.

Is Struck By Auto While Walking Along Highway Near Willow Grove Bridge

DRIVER TRIES TO AVOID COLLISION

Michael Isaac, aged 69, of 4 Center street, was struck and instantly killed at 9:10 last evening by the car of Mrs. Ray Johnson, of 70 Pittsburgh Circle, Ellwood City, near the Willow Grove bridge on the Wampum road. Mrs. Johnson in attempting to avoid striking the aged man, drove her car over a ten-foot embankment, and escaped with but minor injuries.

According to the story told Coroner Orville Potter and Highway Patrolman Holmes, Mr. Isaac had started to walk to Dixmont, where one of his children is a patient. Mrs. Johnson was on her way home from her duties at the New Castle Free Public Library. She stated that when she first saw Isaac he was walking almost in the center of the roadway. She sounded the horn and put on the brakes, but the man in the road apparently did not hear (Continued On Page Two)

CLAREMORE, Okla., April 2.—I tell you Oklahoma has got 'em all beat. Looking mighty good, good governor, good crops, cattle a good price. Just flew in over Kansas. Say, Kansas has got 'em—a fine Republican governor, that you are awful liable to hear a lot about for president. You know the Republicans here lately have decided to put out a ticket. You know an awful lot of folks are predicting Roosevelt's downfall—not only predicting but praying. We are a funny people. We elect our presidents, be they Republican or Democrat, then go home and start daring 'em to make good. Yours, Will Rogers.

Start Search For J. W. Dinsmore

New Castle Man Missing Since Friday Night Is Being Hunted

Missing since sometime after midnight, Friday, March 29, the whereabouts of John W. Dinsmore, 62, are still unknown. Relatives and friends are fearful that either accident or foul play has befallen him and city and state police are conducting a search for him. On Friday night Mr. Dinsmore attended the banquet of the Mahoning-Shenango Valley Engineers society in the Castleton hotel but left there around ten o'clock. Later he went to his room in the Leslie hotel where he lives.

Apparently he left his room and walked down street sometime after midnight and about two o'clock was seen in a restaurant in South Jefferson street near the public square. At that time he was dressed in a brown suit, brown shoes, and a red necktie. He is known to hundreds of New Castle people and because he is so well known and no trace of him has been found it is feared that he may have met with accident or foul play.

Increased Army Is French Aim

Will Match Military Increases Of Germany, Says Premier Flandin

By WILLIAM PARKER
International News Service Staff Correspondent
PARIS, April 2.—France definitely will increase her own military service in reply to German re-armament just as soon as the extent of the German moves is known, Premier Pierre-Etienne Flandin told the chamber of deputies today. The revelation was contained in a stirring defense of his government's policies and a bitter attack upon Germany for her treaty violations and re-armament steps, made in the course of a general debate on France's internal and foreign policy. Following the speech the premier called for a vote of confidence, and was sustained, 410 to 134.

BEATS WOMAN TO DEATH AFTER SHOOTING THREE MEN

(BULLETIN)
HERSHEY, Pa., April 2.—Blazing away with an automatic revolver, Guerim Carlucetti, 38, today shot and killed one man, wounded two others, and then beat the wife of one of his victims to death.

The dead were: Emidio Giovannetti, 40, his wife, Laura, also 40. The wounded, in the Hershey hospital, were Otavio Pace and Basilio Martini.

Woman Beaten To Death
Mrs. Giovannetti was beaten to death with the stock of a shotgun as she sat in the bathtub in her home when the frenzied slayer burst through the door after killing her husband and snatching the shotgun from his hands.

Overpowered, Carlucetti was rushed to state police barracks here under heavy guard. Police said they were trying to determine whether the man was insane or whether the mass shooting was the culmination of blackmail and bootlegging Vendetta as he declared.

Pace was shot first as he passed Carlucetti on the street. Martini was the next to fall.

The assailant ran to the Giovannetti home where he was met by Giovannetti. Giovannetti fell fatally wounded. The slayer then burst into the bathroom where Mrs. Giovannetti was attacked. Her skull was battered almost indescribably, police said.

ANGLO-POLISH CONFERENCE ON

Poland To Remain Aloof From Any New Security Pact Is Report

(International News Service)
A warning by Premier Mussolini against undue optimism regarding current European negotiations was sounded today as Anglo-Polish conversations began at Warsaw.

Developments in leading capitals:

ROME—Writing in Popolo D'Italia, Mussolini told Italians to realize Britain, France and Italy have not been in "complete unity of thought" since announcement of German rearmament.

LONDON — Britain informed Germany she and France are solidly joined in efforts to bring about collective security in Europe.

WARSAW — Captain Anthony Eden, British Lord Privy Seal, launched negotiations with Polish leaders with advance assurance Poland will enter no collective treaty that might renew her historical status as battleground of Europe.

Topple Stresa Illusions
ROME, April 2.—Ordering his people to take a realistic view of the European arms muddle, Premier Benito Mussolini today sensationally toppled the "castle of illusions" being built up around the Stresa conference.

Britain, France, and Italy, the nations that will send representatives to Lago Maggiore April 11, have not been in "complete unity of thought" since German rearmament was openly announced, and the only hope for Stresa was that their "identity of viewpoint be consecrated," Il Duce said.

Mellon Resumes His Testimony

Tells Probers Of Affairs After He Took Office In Cabinet

DENIES CHARGES BY GOVERNMENT

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, April 2.—Andrew W. Mellon, the man who derived a fortune out of the vast financial and industrial empire he aided in constructing, took no part in the management of his varied business after he went to Washington to become secretary of the treasury in 1921. He told the U. S. board of tax appeals here today.

Still, he retained stock in many industries but this was permitted, the multi-millionaire financier said, by a supreme court decision which he cited. He also called attention to the findings of a senate committee which cleared him of charges of conducting private business while a cabinet member.

To Clear Name

At times stammering, Mellon shifted in the witness chair as he exposed details of financial affairs he guarded for years. He not only seeks a refund of $139,045 on his 1931 income tax payment but he also desires to clear the name of Mellon. The government charges he defrauded it out of income taxes in 1931 and wants $3,089,261 in additional taxes and penalties. Continuing his cross-examination of the witness, chief government counsel Robert H. Jackson sought to substantiate previous testimony which indicated Mellon was the guiding genius behind his business interests while in Washington and at the court of St. James's. This Mellon denied emphatically.

AUTOISTS BEWARE!

MAN CONFESSES TO DUAL CRIME

New York Crime Mystery Solved

Deaths Of Aged Woman And Granddaughter Revealed As Murders

LIQUOR BLAMED IN CONFESSION

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, April 2.—Thomas McFarland, 39-year-old varnish-maker and the father of three children, stood revealed today as the brutal slayer of his sixty-eight old mother-in-law, Mrs. Nora Kelly, and her granddaughter, Florence McVey, 18.

McFarland made a complete confession last night, police said, and today was being held formally without bail on a charge of homicide.

The bodies of the two women were found in their Brooklyn home shortly before dawn yesterday. Autopsies revealed that both had been criminally attacked.

Mrs. Kelly's body was hanging from a wire noose attached to rafters in the basement. Miss McVey's body was found lying on the floor of the living room. She had been smothered to death.

Suspect Breaks Down
McFarland was picked up by detectives yesterday and was subjected to a grueling questioning. At first he steadfastly denied all knowledge of the crime, but broke down when detectives told him they were going to have stains on his clothing subjected to analysis to determine whether they were caused by human blood.

"Oh, all right, I'll tell you all about it and get the thing off my chest," police quoted McFarland as saying. "I went to visit Mrs. Kelly with a bottle of wine." McFarland then said, "I guess I drank too much. I had had a glass of beer and some Sherry when I had dinner at home with the children at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon and I stopped at a saloon and had five beers on the way."

"Mrs. Kelly and I were in the kitchen and she got sore when I took several drinks from the bottle. She told me to stop making a mess of myself. Then she raised a chair as though to strike me. Everything went black. I have a faint recollection of choking her."

The bodies of the women were found when Patrick Murray, who lived in the same house, upstairs, became alarmed at the constant whining of Mrs. Kelly's dog.

D. Preston Carson and Jay Allsworth were in a machine following Mrs. Johnson, and took her to her home in Ellwood City after the accident.

Isaac sustained a fracture of the skull and had both legs broken. The victim leaves his wife, Rachel, and twelve sons and daughters, John, Joseph, Anthony, Michael, Edward, Mrs. Frank Mastren, Mrs. William Labelle, Katherine, Mrs. Mike DeMucci, and Pauline, all of this city, Mrs. Joseph Gingra, of Springfield, Mass., and Mrs. Joseph Palvado, of Austin, Texas.

Funeral mass will be celebrated in St. Joseph's church Thursday morning and interment will be made in St. Joseph's cemetery. Until the time of the funeral the body will be at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Frank Mastren, 414 South Jefferson street.

You can't let Willie know it, but inability to lie is regarded as evidence of a feeble mind.

Mammoth Fishing Campaign

This year's drive, according to Samuels, is being conducted in the form of a mammoth fishing campaign, with Alec Samuels serving as admiral; Fred Wolford, admiral of the Pacific fleet; Julius Blaha, vice admiral of the Atlantic fleet; Dean M. Staley, vice admiral of the Training fleet; Paul Gilbert, rear admiral of the South Atlantic fleet; Paul Dingley, rear admiral of North Atlantic fleet; William Connerly, rear admiral of South Pacific fleet; Howard Kirk, rear admiral of North Pacific fleet; Al Owens, rear admiral of Atlantic Training fleet; James Chambers, admiral Pacific training fleet.

Dean M. Staley will be director of the boys' division, aided by Al Owens and James E. Chambers. Owens will head teams 1, 2 and 3, and Chambers will head teams 4, 5 and 6. The roster includes:

Team No. 1—Billy Reed, captain; Dan Woolcock, Glenn Gordon, Allen Naslund, Benjamin Moorhead.

Team No. 2—Louis Turk, captain; Robert Maennan, James Cook, Robert Campbell, Max Ludwig, Jr.

Team No. 3—Willis Campbell, captain; Robert Wadlinger, James Herberg, Charles Stanciu, Junior Mora.

Team No. 4—Guy Lateana, captain; Willis Foster, Robert Hague, John Gilliland, Dean Pollock.

Team No. 5—Carl Scungio, captain; Vincent DeCarbo, Charles Wharton, John Stanciu, John Binger.

Team No. 6—Frank Robinson, captain; Charles Martin, Martin Kastner, Donald Moore, Teddy Lash.

In order to protect the school system, the board decided to put in the clause referred to which will cover them in the event any legislation is passed.

As the matter stands now the school budget for New Castle is pared to the bone. If the law remains as it is, approximately $90,000 in new money must be raised for next year. If such must be done, an increase in school taxes seems certain, probably a two mill increase.

Two contracts were not renewed Monday, these two being teachers who have been married since the opening of the present school term.

Paroled Convict Given Sentence

Henry Lessner, Out On Parole, Steals Jewels And Goes Back To Eastern Pen

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—Henry Lessner, 33-year-old paroled convict who once escaped death in the electric chair, was back in Eastern State penitentiary today.

In the ancient prison at Cherry Hill Lessner must spend seven years and 18 months—all because "society never gave him a chance," to use the words of his attorney.

Lessner was sentenced by Judge Edwin O. Lewis in quarter sessions court after he had pleaded guilty to the theft of $7500 worth of jewels belonging to Mrs. Walter C. Heasley, Jr., socially prominent resident of Bradford, Pa.

Serve Out Term

Since being paroled in 1932 Lessner has tried desperately to resume the life of a respectable citizen, according to his lawyer, Morton Witkin. But, he was a killer. And the world would have none of him. So, crime was the only method by which he could gain livelihood. Witkin told the judge, adding:

"He has reported faithfully to me every month during his parole and I have tried for years to get him a job. No one would handle him even though he was anxious to work and be a decent citizen."

Judge Lewis sentenced the man to 18 months for the jewel theft and decreed he must serve out seven more years, the balance of his sentence for murder. In 1921 Lessner killed a man during an attempted holdup in Philadelphia. He was doomed to die, but his sentence was commuted to life and afterward reduced to a term of 10 to 20 years.

Illness Is Fatal To Rev. Berquist

Former City Rescue Mission Head Dies In Hospital In Michigan

Word was received here today of the death of Rev. E. J. Berquist, formerly superintendent of the City Rescue Mission in New Castle.

His death occurred in a hospital in Ann Arbor, Mich., on Thursday, March 28. Death was due to cerebro spinal meningitis.

Rev. Berquist came to New Castle in 1907 from Sharon and took charge of the Rescue Mission on South Croton avenue. For a number of years he conducted the mission there and later purchased the old Vendome Hotel on South Mercer street, using the entire building for the mission.

About six years ago he left New Castle for Pinkney, Mich., where he was called to the pastorate of the Congregational church. About three years ago Mrs. Berquist preceded him in death.

He leaves three daughters and a son. He was well known in New Castle where he labored for many years in rescue mission work. His death will be met with sadness and regret here.

State's General Fund Today Set At $2,968,838.90

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 2.—With all its current bills paid, the commonwealth began April with $2,968,838.90 in the general fund from which all ordinary expenses are met, the monthly treasury report showed today.

All second and third class school district subsidies, due in March were paid, treasury officials said, as well as ordinary bills. The treasury paid none of its non-preferred claims, such as appropriations to hospitals and state-aided institutions, which have not been paid regularly since last fall.

The general fund balance was only a slight reduction from that of $3,125,540 on February 28. The motor fund also showed only a slight change, from $7,072,406 on February 28 to $7,732,980 on March 31.

Operative funds held $14,863,482 at the end of the month and custodial or trust funds, $30,030,067. Giving a treasury balance of $44,893,549. Receipts for March were $40,989,506 and expenditures $40,876,994.

STRESA PARLEY ILLUSIONS HIT BY MUSSOLINI

Poland's objections to the proposed eastern security pact was "explored" today during a two-hour conversation between Captain Anthony Eden of Britain and Polish Foreign Minister Col. Joseph Beck.

No details were announced, but the foreign office said "satisfaction" was expressed on both sides.

Eden was to see Marshal Joseph Pilsudski at 5 p. m.

Poland Is Wary

WARSAW, April 2.—Sandwiched between Nazi Germany and Bolshevism Russia—each dreading aggression from the other—Poland will enter no collective treaty that might renew her historical status as the battleground of Europe.

Capt. Anthony Eden, Britain's "exploring" lord privy seal, will receive emphatic information to this effect today from Foreign Minister Joseph Beck, President Ignatz Moscicki, and finally from Marshal Joseph Pilsudski, police dictator.

A vague promise of general cooperation in a system certain to guarantee peace, including, especially, all-round disarmament, is about all the young britain may expect here, it was reliably stated. The basis of Polish policy is to maintain her freedom of action—lending her weight in whatever direction it seems most valuable to her at the time—and to this end she is maintaining her close alliance with France, keeping Germany in check by Poland and France, as Poland is hemmed in by Russia and Germany.

In No New Pact

The substance of what the Polish authorities are telling Capt. Eden today was outlined as follows by a spokesman for Foreign Minister Beck:

"Under no condition will Poland sign an Eastern European pact of mutual assistance.

"Poland has non-aggression treaties with Russia and Germany. That is enough.

"Such eastern pacts as France and the Soviets contemplate would oblige Poland to allow its territory to be crossed either by Russian or German armies. Poland is inalterably opposed to this. Poland does not want to be a battleground again.

"The Soviets and France have their own reasons for wanting this pact. Neither one is worried about Poland's interests. This does not, however, mean that Poland renounces her alliance with France. The feelings of Poland are most friendly to France. But France cannot expect us to make an enormous sacrifice in the interests of Soviet Russia, just because France is now showing a special interest in the Soviets."

Mrs. Helen Zelina Alleges Negligence On Part Of Albin S. Lutes

The case of John and Helen Zelina against Albin S. Lutes in which $5000 damages is demanded as a result of injuries sustained by Mrs. Zelina in an automobile accident, is on trial at court before Judge James A. Chambers.

The accident happened on the Struthers and New Castle road on August 4, 1934, at a point where the Thompson lane intersects the highway. Mr. and Mrs. Zelina live down this lane. On the date mentioned Mrs. Zelina, with a daughter, drove down the lane to the main highway to get the mail.

Their car was stopped in the lane, near the highway. Mrs. Zelina got out and crossed the road to a mail box. As she was starting back she was struck by the car of Albin S. Lutes. Her right leg was broken and she was injured so badly internally that an operation was necessary.

She was in a Youngstown hospital for eight weeks and it is claimed that her injuries are of a permanent nature. Carelessness in the operation of the Lutes car is alleged. Lutes lives at Beechwood Inn.

The committee adhered to the president's decision to limit immediate old-age pensions to a federal grant of $15 a month for each state pensioner. The states must match the sum.

A compulsory contributory old-age pension scheme, designed to make the system virtually self-supporting in 40 years, also was approved. Under this system, beginning in 1937, a payroll tax would be levied on employers and an earnings tax on workers. The combined tax would rise to six per cent in 15 years. By 1980 a reserve fund of $50,000,000,000 would be built up in the federal treasury.

Deaths of the Day

Ella Catherine Emery

Ella Catherine Emery, aged 14 years, daughter of Edward B. and Stella D. Emery, died at her home, 2 Elmwood street, at 11:55 p. m. Monday, after an illness of a number of months.

She was born in Newport on November 6, 1920. She had lived in Union township for the past three and a half years, and was a member of the Christian and Missionary Alliance church of New Castle.

Surviving are her parents, one brother, Victor Emery, and her grandmothers, Mrs. Mary Emery and Mrs. Eleanor Reno.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 p. m. Thursday in the Christian and Missionary Alliance church with Rev. J. H. Boon, the pastor, in charge. Interment will be made in Oak Park cemetery.

Mrs. Hilier Funeral

Funeral services for Mrs. Frank Hilier, of 708 Chestnut street, were conducted at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon at the home in charge of Rev. H. J. Sutton, pastor of the Primitive Methodist church.

Two touching hymns were beautifully sung during the services by Mrs. H. J. Sutton and Miss Blair, entitled, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," and "The Old Rugged Cross."

Members of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Sons of Union Veterans were present, forming a guard of honor during the services, and at the close of the services, stood in silent tribute as the casket was carried by The pallbearers were William McClesney, Roy White, David Parks, Roy Kirkwood, Ben Kennedy and John Mills. Interment was made in Graceland cemetery.

Funeral Of Mr. Park

Funeral services for Samuel E. Park were conducted from the Madison Avenue Christian church Monday afternoon with Rev. W. W. Smith, the pastor, officiating.

"Abide With Me," "Cast Thy Bread Upon the Waters," and other favorite hymns of the deceased were touchingly rendered during the services by John Bevan, Mrs. Charles Clark and Mrs. Richard Morris, accompanied by Miss Thelma Bum-baugh.

Mr. Park was a prominent citizen of Seventh ward and the funeral services were attended by a crowd of friends that filled every part of the church auditorium. Members of the wreck train crew of which Mr. Park was the wreck-master, attended in a body, and a number of Pennsylvania railroad officials were also present.

Further indication of the great affection and respect in which Mr. Park was held by his many friends of the church, the railroad and the community, were the numerous beautiful offerings of flowers.

Pallbearers were S. G. Fitzgerald, J. E. Wilson, Hugh Highfield, Curtis Hilliard, B. G. Martin and Hugh Robinson. Interment was made in Valley View cemetery.

Funeral At Butler

Mr. and Mrs. William Wise, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Young, Mrs. Clyde Shepherd and Mrs. Harry Haggarty, of New Castle; Mrs. Mike Shuler, of Greenville, and Mr. and Mrs. William Gartner, of Warren, O., were among the many friends who attended funeral services for Floyd A. Wise, at Butler, Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. Wise, aged 45, who died Friday after an operation, was well known in New Castle, and the local people who attended the funeral were relatives. Mr. Wise served as a soldier in the World War and full military honors were accorded him yesterday.

Mrs. Beck Funeral

Last rites for Mrs. Harold Beck of Buffalo, N. Y., were conducted at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon in the Book-Loyde mortuary, with the Rev. C. H. Heaton, pastor of the First Baptist church, in charge.

Pallbearers were the Messrs. Jamison, McPhillips, Evans, Tribby, Beck and Wick. Interment was made in Greenwood cemetery.

HERSHEYS HEAR SPLENDID PAPERS

Gathering in the Moody avenue residence of Mrs. H. S. McGoun, on Monday evening, about 45 members of Hershey auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church heard a number of interesting papers which were enlightening.

Mrs. J. R. Meade's paper on the subject, "A Word for Mothers' Day" was especially good. Mrs. John Foster gave Korea News and Mrs. Ira Ramsey spoke on "Native Sons and Daughters-American Indians." Marjorie Thomas, talented young pianist, favored the group with a solo. Mrs. R. S. Tannehill was received as a new member.

During the social hour, refreshments were served by Mrs. McGoun and assisting hostesses, Mrs. Donald Lusk, Mrs. W. H. Atkinson, Miss Della Glenn, Mrs. David Long and Mrs. C. P. McDowell.

The May meeting will be held on the first Tuesday, the hostess to be announced.

EVENING BRIDGE AT FIELD CLUB THURSDAY

Field Club members will assemble at the clubhouse Thursday, April 4, for another of their enjoyable mixed bridge parties, included in the season's series. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Penton will preside as hosts, and play is scheduled for 8:15 o'clock.

At the close of the contests prizes will be awarded those winning honors, and the entire affair will be concluded with the serving of lunch.

Polish Falcons

GUEST SPEAKERS AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Speaking before the Woman's club in Highland U. P. church, Monday afternoon, on the subject of "Training the American Youth for Adequate Citizenship," Dr. Howard E. Wilson, assistant professor of social studies department at Harvard University, stressed the importance of both school and home influences in teaching the younger generation along lines of modern thought pertaining to government.

He drew a parallel between the classroom teaching of many decades ago as compared to needed reform to meet ever changing present day conditions, pointing out the necessity of a clearer understanding on the part of the adult, as well as the youth of background reasons for our various forms of government to overcome cynicism. He advocated side of politics, as well as the idealistic side, that one's viewpoints may not be distorted, in general, hearing only about the dramatists.

Dr. Wilson was in New Castle in connection with the opening of the 300th anniversary celebration of high school education in America. Besides addressing the Woman's club, he also spoke before the Rotary and Quota clubs and social studies teachers of the city, on relative subjects.

Following the out of town speaker's talk, which was most instructive and interesting, Col. Dan McQuiston, of New Wilmington, spoke on "The Need of the National Defense Program for America." Col. McQuiston, president of the Shenango Valley Chapter of the Reserve Officers Association, dealt with the formation of groups in the various towns and cities throughout the country to assume this important project in the near future. He said there is a dire need for patriotic, active type of citizens to deal with the radical changes which are taking place in the United States, as well as in all the important countries in the world today.

Appropriate to the program which was presented by the American Citizenship Department, Mrs. P. S. Brennan, chairman, Miss Elizabeth Millholland favored the guests, who numbered well over a hundred, with a reading, "The Candidates Speak."

Mrs. Archibald H. Davis, president, presided over the meeting and after the assembly salute to the flag, in opening the session, several reports were heard. Mrs. M. M. Kirk reported recently held by the Ways and Means Department; Mrs. A. L. Shumaker for the new program committee, in which a request was made for written suggestions at the next meeting, for the type of programs desired next year; Mrs. R. S. Tannehill for the Fine Arts group, announcing a meeting of this department, to be held Monday, April 8, at her home.

Mrs. M. Schoenberger was presented with an April First table centerpiece which was the clever handwork of Mrs. Harold R. McCulloch. It was in the form of a mound, fashioned of sliced vegetables to represent dainty spring flowers, and was decidedly unique and attractive.

For the next meeting on April 15, the club anticipates the coming of Mrs. John M. Phillips, of Pittsburgh, state president of the Federation of Women, who will address the organization on the occasion of its 45th anniversary.

Aid-A-Gi

Miss Gertrude Saul, Logan street, charmingly entertained members of the Aid-A-Gi club in her home on Monday evening.

Cards featured the evening's entertainment with Miss Dorothy Levine capturing the coveted prize. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Miss June Frank, at an appropriate time. The next meeting will be held in one month.

DR. HOWARD E. WILSON ADDRESSES QUOTA CLUB

Monday night, at the usual dinner-meeting of Quota club in the Elks club house, many guests heard a brilliant and entertaining talk by Dr. Howard E. Wilson, professor of the graduate school of social studies at Harvard University. The speaker was introduced by Miss Elsie Calvin, of the Senior high school faculty.

Among his many interesting statements, in commemorating the 300th year of the establishment of the American high school, Dr. Wilson said that schools have created a public capable of comprehension and scientific laboratories. He reminded his audience that when comparing present day schools with the accomplishment of schools of the past, we should continue that thought and compare present day schools with possibilities of schools of the future.

Dr. Wilson called attention to the fact that in the study of the history of education, students cannot fail to note that the subject is primarily the story of outstanding teachers, proving to the student that nothing is so important as the personality of the teacher.

On next Monday evening, Quota's dinner-meeting will be held at the Overlook, in New Wilmington. At this time, Lucille Beerbower, of Westminster college, will give a talk on "Signs of Spring."

FAREWELL PARTIES HONOR ULRICH FAMILY

A number of delightful parties, that too had a tinge of sadness, have been given recently in honor of Mrs. Carl Ulrich and son, who leave today for Pittsburgh, Calif., to make their home. Last evening, another occasion took place at the home of Mrs. John Ulrich, Beckford street, where friends assembled in surprise fashion and tendered her a shower. Many lovely gifts were presented Mrs. Ulrich, Jr., in remembrance of her host of friends she leaves in New Castle.

In serving, Mrs. Lyle Himebaugh assisted.

On Sunday evening, Mrs. John Ulrich was hostess to members of the Brandon and Ulrich families at a dinner party in her home, as the final farewell to the Carl Ulrich family, from those so close to her.

Florine Bush, Honored

Monday afternoon from 3 until 5 o'clock, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Bush, on Edgewood avenue, was the scene of a gay little party when the latter entertained twelve youngsters in honor of the fourth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Florine.

The hours were kept lively with games, stunts and contests so appealing to young tots, and at a suitable time, they were served an attractive and tasty lunch. Easter Bunnies and chicks were given as favors, and other decorations also suggested the approaching season. The center was graced with a large birthday cake in tones of pink and white, the gift of Mrs. John Cooper. Tall tapers in crystal holders were placed at either end of the table. As the youngsters departed, they showered the honored one with many good wishes, and she received a number of lovely gifts in remembrance of the day.

House Warming Party

The Ne-Ca-Ros have been more or less inactive in social functions lately because of the prolonged work on their clubroom on North Liberty street, which is now completed.

With its completion a house warming party was held in March 31, in the new clubroom. A toast was given by Walter Chernavsky, president of the club, and to whom the members responded heartily.

As a pastime, tables were set up for a game of five hundred. At an appropriate hour, Miss Helen Duncho and Miss Anne Billyk served delicious refreshments and the rest of the evening was spent informally.

P. B. G. Club

The P. B. G. club will be entertained at the home of Miss Frances Zukoski on Thursday evening in observance of the second anniversary.

SHENANGO CHAPTER STYLE REVUE SUCCESS

A revue of "What Fashions Trend Will be for the Approaching Season" combined with a splendid musical entertainment, interested a gathering of 200 guests in the East lodge room of the Cathedral Monday evening. The affair was given under the auspices of Shenango Chapter No. 333, Order of the Eastern Star, Miss Lois Martin, worthy matron as the outstanding feature on their April calendar of social activities.

An array of chic ensembles for morning wear were displayed such as striped silks, afternoon tea gowns of sheer and taffeta trim, with "Onion straw" hats and the novel "Barnyard straw" not omitting the popularity of knitted suits for every occasion in brilliant hues. For evening, pink net frocks, and printed, washable silks with tricky capes and jackets, were cleverly shown by the following models: Miss Elizabeth Morrow, Miss Gretchen Smith, Mrs. James Rugh, Mrs. Park Bartholomew, Miss Mary Ann Mellinger, Miss Mary Wilson, Mrs. Cecilia Wolford, Mrs. Carl Hart and Mrs. W. A. Pond. As each model stepped out in her stunning frocks, Mrs. Jay Rudolph announced the number, and the particular mode to be featured in feminine wear. Mrs. Chas. Moore presided at the piano, and played popular numbers throughout the evening.

At intervals, the guests were favored with male singing by a quartet of male voices, comprising Charles Moore and Clifford Young, first tenors; Fred Smith and David Reese, second tenors; Fred Scheppe and Russell Rhodes, baritones; Thomas Davis and Leonard Kisthart, bass with Albert A. Taylor, playing their accompaniments. The numbers selected were: "Out of the Dusk" by Dorothy Lee; "Were I a King" by Oley Speaks; "Pale Moon" by Frederick Logan and "The Fisher Boys" by Samcenik.

Another feature, was the vocal solo "Easter Parade" sung beautifully by Mrs. Lillian Andrews Buckner, the possessor of a lovely voice, which was enthusiastically received, as were the other musical numbers. A duet "Song of Songs" by Moya, sung by Charles Moore and Russell Rhodes with Mr. Taylor at the piano, pleased.

Albert A. Taylor, pianist, rendered two selections, "Minuet Waltz," by Chopin, and "Liebstraume" by Liszt. The lodge room was attractively decorated for the occasion, by Miss Jean Jackson. She used ferns, foliage, and lamps in various nooks, making a perfect look, setting for the display. Others who are due credit for the evening's success, includes, Lois Martin, Mrs. Charles E. Allen, and Mrs. Lillian Moore, the latter who had charge of the music and Miss Rhoda Leslie, chairlady. She was assisted by the Misses Harriet Truby, Harriet Weddell, Jean Glenn and Mrs. C. E. Kennedy, hostesses.

The evening's entertainment, launched a spectacular season of activities for Shenango Chapter members, planned by their worthy matron, Miss Martin. The next event that is being anticipated with great expectations, is the May Day pageant. This will be given early in May with Miss Marjorie Rhodes, chairman. Full details will be revealed at a later date.

On April 2, a series of parties, will be held in the home of Mrs. Mae B. Young, East Wallace avenue, with Mrs. Celia Wolford and Mrs. Anna Rowland, associate hostesses. This is open to members and friends.

B. P. W. HEARS OF OLD INDIAN TRAILS

The Business and Professional Women's club was intensely interested last evening in the Y. W. C. A. by Miss Sara Dinsmore's colorful descriptions of old roads and trails in Pennsylvania and in Lawrence county, following the old Indian trails.

Miss Dinsmore in her unusual address told of the taverns and inns where travelers stopped for the night, the services given by the innkeepers to stage coach passengers, and to the horses and cattle which every day brought over the roads.

Miss Helen White, president of the club, presided during the business meeting which followed. Announcement was made of a district meeting to be conducted in Ellwood City.

The health committee announced that a clinic will be conducted in the Y. W. C. A. on Wednesday morning, April 10, at 10 o'clock.

M. S. S. Club

A meeting of the M. S. S. club was held at the home of Mary Sansosti on Friday, March 29. A program was enjoyed by the members. Those who participated in the program were: Dorothy Micco, dance and song; Norma Geminiani, piano recital; Angelina Conglose and Mary Sansosti, duet, and Sylvia Zannoni, reading.

At a suitable hour, the hostess served a delicious luncheon. The next meeting will be held at the home of Norma Geminiani, of 815 Morton street, April 5.

1935 Club

1935 club associates met Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Sylvia Millison, on Maryland avenue, for a pleasure period. Needlework was the pastime and the girls addressed post cards to be mailed to Miss Kathryn Newberry, of Garfield avenue, who is in the Jameson Memorial hospital suffering with a badly fractured leg as the result of a fall while roller skating last week. Refreshments were a concluding feature, Mrs. Nell Beighley aiding.

The next meeting will be on April 15 at the Beighley home, on Butler avenue.

Surprise Party

Honoring the tenth birthday of their son Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mitolo, of North street, entertained twenty little playmates in their home Sunday afternoon.

Games were chosen by Mrs. Mitolo for the children's amusement, and in serving luncheon the two grandmothers assisted, Mrs. Mary Mitolo and Mrs. Mary LaRocca. Tones of pink and white were carried out in menu details, with a large birthday cake holding lighted candles centering the table.

EXCELLENT PROGRAM FOR COUNTY MEETING

East Side Garden Club, hostess for the County meeting of all the Garden clubs on Thursday at one o'clock, in the Third U. P. church, are making elaborate plans for an outstanding event.

Mrs. Howard P. Meehan, Mrs. C. R. Brenner and Mrs. J. A. Wilson have arranged a delightful program which will follow luncheon. This will include a trombone solo by Tom Cramer, the lad who won first prize in the New Wilmington music contest last Saturday. He will be accompanied by Frank Taylor, another youth, who was awarded first prize at New Wilmington for piano. Mrs. H. P. Meehan, one of the city's well known musicians, will contribute several piano numbers.

The guest speaker will be Dr. B. E. Quick, head of the department of biology at Westminster. A one act play entitled "Society Notes" will be presented by several members of the night school dramatic class, of which Mrs. Albert Hewitt is teacher.

CIRCLE '91 HEARS JOKES AND PAPERS

Typical of April 1, was the theme for Monday afternoon's meeting of the Circle of '91 in the home of Mrs. C. H. Martin, on County Line street. The quotation was one of Charles Lamb, "A laugh is worth one hundred groans in any market". April fool jokes were related in answer to roll call and an exceedingly clever original April fool poem was given by Mrs. H. G. Robinson which created more merriment.

The less frivolous part of the program consisted of several instructive and interesting papers. "The Youth Movement in Germany" was discussed by Mrs. C. D. Parker; "Mussolini's Rule in Italy," by Mrs. Julius Blaha. Mrs. J. Lee McPate spoke on the topic, "Above the Earth and Under the Sea."

During the business session, Mrs. C. H. Martin was named president, and Miss Martha Dods, secretary. The next meeting will be on April 15, with Mrs. C. Lee Mellinger, of Winter avenue.

MRS. WILLIAM LLOYD HONORED AT SHOWER

Last evening Miss Margaret McGowan entertained at a lovely party in honor of Mrs. William Lloyd, nee Ruth MacDonald, and a bride of two weeks ago. The occasion was in the form of a surprise, and took place at the home of the latter's mother, Mrs. John MacDonald, on Galbreath avenue.

As the guests arrived they each placed an attractively wrapped package on the living room table, and later, presented to the hostess in a clever manner. When opened, a collection of beautiful miscellaneous gifts were revealed.

Bingo was the diversion that followed, prizes for this contest going to Ruth and Mac Dagnon.

In serving a menu of refreshments the hostess was assisted by Mrs. MacDonald. The table was prettily decorated in tones suggestive of the event, and the center was graced by a bouquet of spring flowers.

SPEAKER-REPORTS TO FEATURE COUNCIL MEET

The regular meeting of the National Council of Jewish Women will be held Wednesday, April 3, at eight o'clock in Temple Israel.

Dr. C. C. Green, superintendent of the public schools, will be guest speaker, and he has selected an interesting subject for this meeting. Reports from the northwestern meeting and the Lawrence County Federation of Women's Clubs will be given also at this time.

Party At Ellwood

Girls of the G. E. M. class, of the First Baptist church, taught by Miss Marie Hogue, met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Maskrey, of Ellwood City, Monday evening. Boy friends and husbands were special guests and the evening was delightfully spent with various games and music, with a taffy pull featuring. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess before the trip back to town was made.

The class will meet again in two weeks, a tureen dinner being planned.

GET RID OF YOUR "GET EVEN" SPIRIT

The desire to retaliate for some real or supposed injury is a waste of time and thought that might be employed to better advantage.

If you have that thought of ranking revenge, you lost much of the pleasures which should be rightfully yours.

Why punish yourself when it is punishment you want to inflict on another?

The one whom you have in mind probably is ignorant of your desire to make him suffer.

He is not experiencing any discomfort because you desire retribution.

As a result, you punish yourself with your own ill-will.

At least you suffer the longest. If you do punish your enemy, the gratification is short-lived.

If you are a normal human being, you will regret your unkindness to a fellow being.

There is no satisfaction in making another suffer, even though he does deserve it.

Hasn't this impressed you when you have succeeded in getting even? Get rid of your "get even" spirit. You can gain nothing by it, and there is much you can lose.

Boss, please read this letter and 'splain just what it say. It seems to me I gets one to sign most every day.

Old Preacher Jones, he read it but he skip the biggest word. He say dat "can't 'splain it cause he ain't never heard."

'Cept in a court or law suit, en a lawyer try to 'splain. But he must er got his self balled up, cause he didn't make it plain.

Now take dis compensation, just what is it about? Do it mean dat money's comin, in or do us pay it out?

If it mean I git a government check, I'm glad to tech the pen. The only thing dat bothers me is just how much and when.

I set and 'scussed dis thing last night, my old woman and me. And just where us is headed for is one thing I can't see.

Two cures for the same disease. A poor man and a rich man in the doctor's office sat.

And both of them had tummyache or ill skin to that.

They talked about their symptoms and just where the twinges came.

Until even I who heard them knew their cases were the same.

The rich man saw the doctor and came out with visage sad. I heard him whisper something of the maladies he had.

"It is nervous indigestion!" Here his chin fell on his chest.

"And I'm ordered off to Europe for at least a six months' rest."

I shuddered for the poor man for I couldn't clearly see.

If a six months' rest were ordered how he'd keep his family.

But the poor man came out smiling and he told me with a smirk:

"Just a touch of indigestion—now I'm on my way to work!"

Oh, it's not for me to question what improves or makes us worse. But the cure for certain ailments seems to vary with the purse.

Take this nervous indigestion, which is middle age's quirk:

The rich man goes to Europe and the poor man goes to work.

Sun sets tonight 6:25. Sun rises tomorrow 5:42.

There are two things that are cheap at any price and one of them is cheap roads of which we have many in Pennsylvania. We would not care to have them named after us.

It is possible to see peach trees in beautiful bloom one day in this country and snow the next day. You don't have to travel very fast to see that either.

A Harrisburg bulletin tells us that of the nearly 800 dogs known to have done damage to livestock in the state during the last ten months, about half of them were police dogs. Not very complimentary to the police dogs, is it?

Now they say that women have better eyes than men. Anyway, a man never can tell when a nose needs powdering.

We are told that the Pymatuning Dam project is not a Coney Island affair. All that is needed is a few saloons placed at convenient points around the shore of the lake.

It seems to us that an elevator operator has a fine chance to make a lot of friends and his stock in trade need be nothing more than a lot of courtesy and politeness.

Over in Italy war time profiteers will be stood up against a wall and shot. That is a sure way of getting rid of those who do it and are caught.

He: "What did your rich relative think of your paintings?" Friend: "When he looked at them he clapped his hands—"

He: "That's splendid!" Friend: "Er—over his eyes."

Uncle Si says: "Maybe life ain't worth livin' sometimes, but there ain't no time but what it don't beat dyin'."

After once more seeing congress in session we are more fully convinced than ever that this great country of ours is lucky that it is getting along as well as it is.

ON EXERCISE AT HOME The other day we read an item advising women how to exercise at home in order to keep the proper proportioned figure. If we remember correctly it recommended six minutes devoted to exercise each morning.

That isn't much time to give over to making the body beautiful, but the trouble is that most women these days get too much exercise. Many who formerly found themselves doing their own work and liking it. They do not have time to sit around and grow fat.

As for young girls and women, they get plenty of exercise in the natural course of the healthful, outdoor life they lead. Normal, active persons who dance, play tennis, swim, ride horseback, take frequent walks, and do their allotted share of work get plenty of exercise without having to go to the bother of taking special reducing exercises.

Even the beauty experts now admit that housework is just as good a conditioning and slenderizing exercise as golf and tennis. Dish-washing, sweeping, ironing, scrubbing, bed-making and running up and down stairs, they say, are especially good for reducing the hips, taking off excess weight and maintaining those now popular graceful curves.

PROBABLY "NO." Former Doughboy: If there has to be another war, I hope I get sent some place where they speak English.

AT THE END OF THE DAY Slowly the sun in the west is now sinking. Lulled to rest by the clouds on its pillow of red; Lengthening shadows of night find us thinking.

Another day gone—ah, how quickly it sped. Yes, another day gone, if we only had lived it. That a sweet dream of happiness it might ever be.

For all that we do, whether good or unpleasant Is inscribed upon memory's pages you see.

So even tho' our hearts may be heavy with sorrow. Or problems with which we're unable to cope, Let us live each 'today' so that every tomorrow May shine through the distance as a vision of hope.

Every day more and more women are being executed for killing their husbands. Husband slaying is not considered a family sport any more.

It seems to us that men or women salaming and bow-towing before a foreign king is not quite American. We wouldn't do it, but if those who do get any pleasure out of it they are welcome to it.

A Hollywood actress wants a divorce because her husband started to whistle every time she asked him where he had been when he was out late at night. Whistling evidently is not a good answer.

In Pikesville, Ky., a lawyer by the name of Dalzell was trying a case. He called upon a young mountaineer as a witness. "What is your name?"

"Well, well," remarked Attorney Dalzell, "isn't it strange that you and I have the same name. Maybe we're related."

"Yep 'tis. Mammy used to tell me how pappy would leave home for years at a time and go browsing around."

It may be, as Prof. Irving Fisher of rubber money fame, says, that 11 college professors, two bankers and five foreign authorities are the only persons in the world who know the real meaning of money. But there are a good many others who know the real meaning of a lack of it.

Effect Of Belga Break. Americans Should Worry. Farmer To Bear Brunt.

Central Press Washington Bureau 1900 S Street

By LESLIE EICHEL

NEW YORK, April 2.—Sometimes the writer of a column interviews another writer.

John T. Flynn is the foremost writer in America on economics. Last month he had the foremost national committee after another consultation with him.

He once was one of the best newspaper editors in America. Thus he speaks and writes in a style that the layman understands.

Mr. Flynn began making a study of economics as a hobby. It became his life work at a time when economic conditions forced the problems of economics on every man, woman and child.

Mr. Flynn, of course, needs no introduction from any other writer or newspaper man. Editors sit at his doorstep these days. And that means he is popular with the public. He is popular because he is sound and sane, in a delirious world.

THE BELGA Mr. Flynn discussed the belga momentarily.

It is no disgrace to express ignorance as to what the belga is. After all, Belgium isn't such a large country.

The belga is to Belgium what the dollar is to the United States.

You will recall that Belgium was forced off the gold standard recently. Whereupon, a few days later, the belga was devalued, amid a crisis in Belgium.

That particular day happened to be springlike in the United States, and the buds began to crackle. Why, therefore, worry regarding the belga in far-away Belgium?

Well, anyway, that is what Mr. Flynn and I discussed.

SHALL WE WORRY? What's the answer—should we worry, or should we not, concerning the belga?

We should. That was our decision. We had decided upon that answer prior to discussing the question.

The belga is not merely the money unit of Belgium. The belga is Belgium's monetary symbol in the trade-marts of the world.

If the belga sinks to lower and lower levels, price deflations begin all over again, and tariff barriers are raised still higher.

And if the farmer of Kansas tries to maintain his wheat price or tries to dispose of his crop at a profit, he learns that the drop in the value of the belga against the value of the dollar causes his wheat price to be too high in the terms of the belga.

And the Belgians, no matter how much they may need the wheat, cannot afford to buy it from the United States, and either must go elsewhere or try to get along without wheat.

But that is not all. The fall in the value of the price of the belga means that the people of Belgium will be drawing much less for their labor, as against the dollar, than prior to the devaluation of the belga.

Belgium's goods, therefore, will be less costly. They can be sold more reasonably. Whereupon, the manufacturers and the workers of the United States, and of other countries, will demand higher tariffs, to bar the "cheap" Belgian goods.

Now that would be "grand" if it increased business, and if nations were "self-contained." But nations are not self-contained, in so far as trade and money values are concerned.

If Belgium cannot buy American wheat and if the Americans are barred from buying Belgian goods, and if that chain is linked all around the world, the entire human race starves. A Kansas farmer with an excellent wheat crop which he cannot sell because people are too poor to buy it will have his mortgage foreclosed. A Belgian manufacturer who cannot sell his goods, must close his plant and discharge the workers.

That is an example in miniature. Enlarge this to take in the entire world—and guess the consequences.

WHAT CAN WE DO? What can we do?

Other nations certainly will follow Belgium in reducing the value of their currencies. The British, for example, will not permit trade to slip through their fingers because some other nation can manufacture goods more reasonably. The British will see to it that its goods are manufactured as reasonably.

And the United States is in a similar situation.

Now who bears the burden, the "squeeze" in the currency-trade war that is sweeping the world? The international banker? Hardly. He can keep track of trends. He veers to the safe side. He comes out whole, if not better.

No—it is the farmer, the small business man, the worker who bears the burden of such currency and trade wars.

The man in the wheat field in Kansas may be harmed as much by the crisis of the belga in Belgium as the man in the factories of Brussels.

What, therefore, can or should be done?

A demand for trade peace, a demand for an economic understanding ought to emanate from every throat in every land. Civilization can be wiped out as completely by economic warfare as by the warfare of cannon.

The peoples of the world will have to unite in a demand that nations shall trade with one another in peace. If necessary, they even should forget money, and trade by barter.

Otherwise, the dollar will drop, the pound will drop, the mark will drop, the franc will drop and the belga will drop. And prices will rise correspondingly. And that will be considered an indication of improving business. But it will be more like the rapid breathing of a dying man.

Such inflation actually is nothing more than further deflation. Only trade can stop the decaying processes of deflation.

FLYNN To get back to Mr. Flynn, the foregoing words are mine. Perhaps he would not indorse them. But at any rate they came to my mind following a discussion with him of many problems of the world. If the thoughts are good, that is due to Mr. Flynn's influence. If they are bad, that is due to my own ineptness.

TUESDAY, APRIL 2.

Apr. 2, 7 B. C.—The birthdate of Jesus Christ, as calculated by Prof. Oswald Gerhardt, German theologian, who reasoned that the Star of Bethlehem was really Saturn.

Apr. 2, 1791—With one last word, "dormi," the peerless orator of Honoré Gabriel Riqueti, Comte de Mirabeau, was strangled at 42 after having been a mighty force in the formulation of constitutional government and the overthrow of French monarchy.

Apr. 2, 1792—Congress authorized the establishment of the first national mint after forbidding use of George Washington's picture on coins! It feared that the head of the President on money would smack of royalty, and ordered a figure of Liberty substituted on the gold pieces and a sun-dial and the words "Mind Your Business" upon lesser coins.

However, an experimental 1-cent coin minted in 1794 does bear the profile of Washington.

This was not, of course, the first mint in the country. Coins had been manufactured by individual colonies.

Apr. 2, 1805—Hans Christian Andersen was born in Denmark, destined to endow the world with some of its best loved fairy tales.

He was a timid soul. He never married, though he could have had the great Jenny Lind as his wife. He loved her and she loved him, but he never had the courage to propose. So Jenny reluctantly married another.

Apr. 2, 1865—Despairing Confederates evacuated Richmond and put the torch to its business section, signalling the end of the War Between the States.

President Davis and his cabinet were among the last to leave. With them they took the gold coin belonging to the Richmond banks, and money that had been sent from Louisiana for safekeeping. This eventually was paroled among the 3,000 cavalrymen who were the escort of the fugitive government.

Apr. 2, 1895—The first regular motion picture theater was opened by L. Tally in South Main street, Los Angeles. He called it the Electric Theater and charged 10 cents for a one hour show.

Notable Nativities—Frederic Bartholdi, b. 1834, sculptor of the Statue of Liberty. He used his mother as model for the heroic figure.

Giovanni Casanova, b. 1725, celebrated amoralist. —Emile Zola, b. 1870, novelist and social reformer.

Sergei Rachmaninoff, b. 1873, Russian pianist and composer. —Frank H. Vizetelly, b. 1874, American lexicographer. —Walter Percy Chrysler, b. 1875, automobile manufacturer.

Nicholas Murray Butler, b. 1862, president of Columbia University.

You're Wrong If You Believe—That England, Scotland & Wales, where "constitutional rights" were first won, have a constitution.

That twins always have the same father.

They don't! This has been proven.

That sterilization of all the feeble-minded of each generation will appreciably decrease the numerical relation of feeble-minded to normal in the human race, even though the experiment is carried on for 1,000 years.

This blow at one of the popular fallacies is dealt by one of our faithful Writers-of-Wrongs, John F. Kelly, McKeesport, Pa., who quotes J. B. S. Haldane, British biologist, in substantiation. Due to the phenomena of domination and recession, the factors which produce congenital feeble-mindedness can be undecipherable for many generations, only to crop out due to a combination of recessives. And heredity is not the only factor in feeble-mindedness.

Traffic accidents were more numerous and more severe in 1934 than any previous year.

Eight of the worst driving mistakes responsible for last year's tragic record are listed as follows:

- (1) Driving too fast for conditions, a cause named specifically in 22 per cent of all accidents resulting in fatalities charged to drivers alone, and a distinct and sometimes controlling factor in accidents attributed to many other causes.
- (2) Driving on the wrong side of the road.
- (3) Violating right-of-way rules.
- (4) Cutting in.
- (5) Passing on curve or hill.
- (6) Failing to signal or signalling improperly.
- (7) Driving off roadway.
- (8) Reckless driving.

Pedestrians made fatal errors too. Four of the worst were:

- (1) Crossing between intersections, a mistake that accounted for more than 25 per cent of all pedestrian fatalities.
- (2) Crossing against the signal light at intersections.
- (3) playing in the street, an error made chiefly by children, resulting in 16 per cent of all pedestrian deaths.
- (4) Coming from behind parked car.

Motorists and pedestrians! Avoid these fatal errors in 1935—and you will be doing your part to reduce the traffic toll.

Spring fever is really a disease, a doctor says. Now, what will cure laziness?

Girl Reserves To Aid Drive

Three Representatives To

Y. W. Campaign

SIX HUNDRED
GIRLS IN CLUBS

The opening dinner of the Y. W. C. A. membership ingathering will be held Wednesday, April 3, from 6:30 to 7:45 o'clock. At this time cards will be given to the workers and club girls representing five of the 19 clubs in the association will give short talks on what the Y. W. C. A. means to them and what they consider its purpose to be. Three of these girls are in Girl Reserve clubs whose chief purpose is to develop personality and character through an interest in some worthwhile activity, to satisfy a desire for service, and to offer the opportunity to find and make friends.

The New Castle Girl Reserves, who are the junior members of the Y. W. C. A., recently arranged an attractive display of good books at a mid-winter conference in Wheeling. It is interesting to note how the girls and their leaders grouped the problems which are most vital to young girls. Two of the five groups dealt with personal problems—"To develop wide variety" and "To know ourselves and what to do with our lives." The remaining three dealt with problems in relation to others—"To develop healthy idealism," "To understand news confronting the world," and "To find opportunities for bettering the world." This wide but inclusive range of topics leads us to realize that the development in a young girl's life must be well-balanced. (The display mentioned will appear in Strouss Hirschberg's window during the membership drive.)

Approximately 600 girls in this city are in the Girl Reserve movement and are our potential leaders. In many instances, girls whose abilities have been discovered in Junior high school clubs stand out as leaders in high school and community life. To develop Christian citizenship among young girls is one of the outstanding aims of the Girl Reserve movement.

MARSH FIRE LOSS SMALL FIGURES SHOW

Loss from fires in New Castle during the month of March only amounted to $215, although 49 alarms were answered by the various departments.

There was one fire which occurred outside the city, in which a loss of several thousand dollars was reported, which is not included in the amount for the city.

Of the 49 alarms answered 24 were for grass fires, seven were false and five were auto fires.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2—In a report today the Federal Office of Education recognizes New High School, Hickory Township, Scott township, Shenango township, Slippery Rock township and Union township high schools as accredited secondary institutions of learning. The Education Office explains the importance of accredited secondary school by pointing out that in more than 90 per cent of the college admission is based upon certificates of graduation from accredited secondary schools. Standards used in determining whether secondary schools shall receive an accredited status include buildings, laboratories, libraries, teachers, attendance, and graduation requirements. Other high schools recognized as accredited include those at Ellwood City, Butler, Beaver, Beaver Falls, New Wilmington, Wampum and Mercer.

AGAINST REVOLUTION IN TALK TO ROTARY

Combining progressive ideals in government with a down to earth practicality, Dr. Howard Wilson of Harvard university addressed the Rotary club on Monday at noon upon the subject of "Education for Citizenship." His talk might be summed up as a combination of the ideals of a "brain-truster" presented by one who realizes that evolution rather than revolution will bring the ideals to realization.

"Citizenship goes far beyond politics," said Dr. Wilson, "and education for citizenship is not confined to the schools. Schools can influence people in a small way, but all of the agencies of adult life have their part."

"Government is a social problem rather than a narrow political, ceremonialized institution. To educate for citizenship we must get down underneath the ceremony, down underneath the addresses of statesmen, or the meetings of legislative bodies. If we are going to teach government in schools then we should let the student look at the committee functions, we should teach them more about the financial problems of the government, of the need for intelligent systems of taxation to take on more functions than we must expect more taxes, and pupils should be taught the need for taxation systems that are sound. The difficulty with our present method of government is that our schools teach too much loyalty to political institutions. If government is to be efficient we must look at it in a broader sense.

"I do not believe in radical changes in government. Certainly revolution is not the way to get better government. But we must instill in our students a proper knowledge of government if we expect to improve it. The difficulty seems to be that teachers in the elementary schools are afraid to teach corruption in politics. This is understandable for the reason that they want their students to be idealistic and for the further reason that such teaching may meet with opposition from the parents in some cases. What happens is this: The pupil goes from the elementary schools to the colleges and there meets some scintillating young debater who imbues the students with an idea that all politics are crooked. They are not, but there is sufficient corruption in politics to warrant an honest look at conditions."

Dr. Wilson pleaded for a system of instruction where educators who are qualified to teach government would teach it honestly and intelligently towards the end that the coming generations might discard what is bad and introduce practices that are honest and sound and efficient.

WOMAN KILLED BY KEROSENE EXPLOSION

BUTLER, Pa., April 2.—Flames which followed an attempt by her husband to start a fire in the furnace of their home near here, with kerosene, brought death to Mrs. Frank Matko, 45, and destroyed their home.

The husband, Frank Matko, 60, and a son, Joseph, 21, also were severely burned by the flaming oil.

Matko, believing the fire in the furnace to have gone out, threw a quantity of kerosene into it. The oil exploded as it touched the embers, hurling the can into his face and spraying him, Mrs. Matko, and their son, with a burning shower.

Police Dog Is Added To Force

May Accompany Officers About
City On Night Cruiser
Patrol Duty

New Castle police department was further fortified today to combat the criminal element when Chief of Police John F. Haven secured a police dog and with Lieutenant Ralph Criswell proposes to train the dog for night police work. The dog, a five months old pup is named Tom and formerly belonged to Navy Recruiting Officer Nixon.

The dog, according to Nixon, is well bred but has not yet obtained its full growth. He trained the dog to do many stunts and now that the canine has been added to the force the police chief and night lieutenant have taken over its education.

According to the chief of police the dog will be kept at the police station and the only salary the canine will receive will be a good meal each day. The dog, the chief says, has already been taught to know "its place" and he does not expect it to hunt for trouble with other dogs.

The chief said that the dog would accompany Lieutenant Criswell on his night calls. So, if you see a big police dog in a cruiser car at night you will know he's part of the force. In Europe the departments of police have police dogs and many of them have done some good work according to police reports. What kind of a success "Tom" becomes has yet to be learned.

In the meantime "Tom" will be fed properly, given a warm place to sleep, but must accompany police on missions where his services may be needed. He will be placed on the 12 midnight to 8 a. m. turn, over which Lieutenant Criswell presides.

Seek To Change Election Day

Would Have General Election
In October Instead
Of November

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, April 2.—A move to amend the federal constitution by advancing the date for national elections from November to October was pushed forward in the house by Chairman Sumners of Texas, of the judiciary committee.

Sumners said the change is necessary because of adoption of the Norris "lame duck" amendment which calls for the inauguration of the president early in January instead of March 4.

Since the president is chosen by the electoral college, the time allowed for canvassing ballots by this group in the general election has been shortened to 41 days.

Clara Phillips To Be Given Freedom From Prison June 17

Famous Hammer Murderer Will Gain Freedom From California Prison

Has Been "Model Prisoner" Since Escape In December Of 1922

By AGNES UNDERWOOD (International News Service Correspondent)

TEHACHAPI, Cal., April 2.—The name of California's notorious hammer slayer—Clara Phillips—first flashed across the Los Angeles horizon July 12, 1922—the date on which attractive Alberta Meadows, young widow, met her death in a lonely spot on Montecito drive—a crime for which Mrs. Phillips has spent almost 13 years in jails and prisons.

Now, for the third time, the name, Clara Phillips, is to figure in the news—this time on June 17, just six days before her 37th birthday and 10 years after she entered prison, when she is scheduled to be released from Tehachapi—the California state prison for women.

The Clara Phillips—Alberta Meadows story is one never to be forgotten. The ghastly murder of Mrs. Meadows.

The surrender of Mrs. Phillips, through her attractive young husband, Armour Phillips—

Daring Escape Her sensational trial followed by her conviction on November 17, 1922, by a jury which had deliberated only 11 hours—

An then, her daring escape from the county jail, only 51 cents in her possession, no shoes, only a lavender slip-on dress—

Her subsequent capture in San Salvador.

All of these facts weave around attractive Clara Phillips, a story of daring and crime.

Today Clara Phillips—the dental assistant at the women's state institution, is described by deputy wardens and matrons in charge of the institution as "a model prisoner."

Is Woman Apart Since the prison parole board in May, 1934, decided that Mrs. Phillips was entitled to her freedom, Clara Phillips has grown gradually a woman apart, among the prisoners of the state institution.

According to matrons, she doesn't join in the few social affairs arranged for inmates.

Director Goes To Ellwood City Miss Eleanor LeFevre Completes Seven Weeks Service To Local Girl Scouts

Miss Eleanor LeFevre, who has served New Castle as a Girl Scout director for the past seven weeks, concluded her work here on Monday, and went to Ellwood City where she will remain for the week. From there Miss LeFevre will go to Sharpsburg where she will serve as a part-time director until the first of June.

Miss LeFevre was brought here by the New Castle Girl Scout Council with a part of funds secured through the Community Chest, and was the first paid worker the local organization has had since it dispensed with a regular Girl Scout director over a year ago. During her stay here she conducted a weekly training class for leaders, visited all troops, conferred with the council members and patrol leaders, and helped in various ways to better organize the troops and workers.

Geneva Professor Aspires To State School System Job

Prof. James A. Newpher Applicant For Position Of State Superintendency

PROF. J. A. NEWPHER

BEAVER FALLS, Pa., April 2.—In an effort to land Prof. James A. Newpher of Geneva college in the chair of the superintendent of public instruction, Beaver county democrats are losing no time nor energy lining up as much help throughout the state as they can.

Thursday, April 4, Prof. Newpher has an appointment with Governor George H. Earle at which time he will press his claim in person.

He holds the degree of Master of Arts, and is now working on his thesis for his doctorate degree. He heads the Department of Education and Psychology in Geneva college and in the past 10 years has had practical experience in the training of teachers.

Politically he is a registered Democrat. His father was a personal friend of the Attorney General in the Patterson administration and his sister was recently appointed a postmistress in Lancaster county.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hours ending at 3:30 p. m., April 1, nine arrests on charges as follows: Exceeding the parking time limit 2. Drunkenness 4. Vagrancy 1 and Drunkenness and Disorderly conduct 2.

At least 50 goats are kept in the city of New Castle, according to reports given city council and indications are that the solons will pass the Davies bill which requires all owners to obtain permits to keep a goat which has outgrown the kid age, three months. And further than that, Dr. William L. Steen, health officer, today blossomed forth with a statement that all vendors of goat milk must immediately obtain a license to sell the milk in the city.

He also ruled that their places of habitat must be kept in the same sanitary manner as dairies are maintained. According to a letter received by the city the regulations under which cows are maintained are applicable to goats.

Senator Alonzo Batchelor has written members of city council two letters, one relative to firemen and the second in regard to diversion of funds. In his first letter he writes: "I recently received a communication from you expressing your opposition to a bill in the senate providing for a change in the system of fire departments of Third class cities. The bill you mention, I believe, has been definitely postponed in the committee and it is not likely that it will be revived in this session of the legislature." His other missive reads: "I appreciate the very serious situation caused by borrowing or diversion of funds into the state treasury that properly belong to political sub-divisions. I will endeavor to include a provision in any tax measure under consideration that such sums have been diverted be immediately returned to such political sub-division. I will be glad to hear from you about any matters of legislation in which you are interested."

Councilmen met as a board of tax revision and changed the classification of some citizens for tax purposes. The action follows: George P. Jones, from engineer to retired, assessment cut from $400 to $100; H. W. Dunlap, plumber to inspector of plumbing, $500 cut to $250; Nick De Rossa, stenographer to laborer, cut from $400 to $100; William N. McConnell, electric engineer to skilled laborer, cut from $500 to $150; James Bowman, office clerk to teacher, raised from $280 to $300 and Eli S. Randall, carpenter to laborer, cut from $400 to $100. According to the foregoing action there are two classes for laborer, one skilled and the other unskilled and the assessment rates are also different.

Railroad Loans Decision Made

(International News Service) WASHINGTON, April 2.—In a decision affecting hundreds of millions of dollars in railroad loans by banks and the RFC, the Supreme Court Monday held that federal courts can forbid foreclosures on collateral in reorganization of railroads under the emergency bankruptcy act.

The high court's ruling was made on an appeal by the banks and the RFC, in a suit involving reorganization of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad.

Father And Son To Mount Gallows

Father And Son Will Pay With Lives On Gallows In Canada June 27

(International News Service) ST. THOMAS, Ont., April 2.—A father and his 29-year-old son will be hanged together in the yard of the Elgin county jail, here, June 27.

Death sentences were imposed on Frank Temple, 53, and his son, Fred, for the murder of Colin McGregor, county constable, here last May 1. The son was convicted and sentenced by Justice W. T. Henderson in supreme court Saturday just 24 hours after similar conviction and sentence had settled the fate of the father.

Constable McGregor was shot in a scuffle which followed his attempt to serve a theft warrant on the elder Temple. Evidence showed that the father fired the fatal shot while the son struggled with Sergeant Samuel McKeown, who accompanied Constable McGregor.

Boy Injured In Fall Over Hill

Robert Drake, Of Richelieu Avenue, Falls Over Croton Avenue Embankment

Robert Drake, aged 7 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis F. Drake, of 202 Richelieu avenue, is in the Jameson Memorial hospital, suffering with injuries to the back and head, received when he fell over the sheer embankment at Croton avenue and Walnut streets last evening at 7 o'clock.

Members of the Dugan family, residing on Croton avenue, at the top of the Croton hill, saw the youth fall, and Fred Dugan went to the scene and carried him to the office of a nearby doctor. He had fallen onto the railroad tracks, 45 feet below. After an examination, the doctor ordered him taken to the hospital.

DEMONSTRATION AGAINST CAPITAL PUNISHMENT

Much Ballyhoo Marks Execution

Protesters Stage Noisy Demonstration Against London Hanging

ASTONISHING MOVE MADE BY CROWDS

By CHARLES A. SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, April 2.—While a naval stoker was hanged for murder today, airplanes roared over Wadsworth prison, loudspeakers blared hymns and slogans from trucks outside the locked gates, and society women and men defied police with the introduction of spectacular ballyhoo methods in an astonishing demonstration against capital punishment.

Three airplanes circled again and again, trailing huge banners reading "stop the death sentence."

Loud Speakers Blare

From a long line of auto trucks radio speakers loudly intoned "abide with me." An army of sandwich men picketed the prison gates, their numerous guards bearing appeals to stay the hanging, illustrated with Macabre pictures of the scaffold.

The stoker who was the cause of the demonstration was Leonard Brigstock, who murdered chief petty officer Degann aboard ship at Chatham, January 19.

Gathering crowds outside the prison brought increasing police reinforcements, and finally the superintendent in command ordered the mob to disperse.

"Stay right here!" Mrs. Elst scornfully cried. "Keep on! Keep on!" Unable to drive off the crowd, the police formed a strong cordon around the prison to prevent any possible assault on the gates.

Clamor Increases

The clamor swelled in frenzied crescendo as 9 a. m. the hour set for the execution, drew near, women knelt in the street, their hands uplifted in prayer, the airplanes swung lower. The sandwich men walked faster, the loud speakers bellowed: "Stop capital punishment!" and excited men cried "England is about to commit another murder in cold blood."

In a few minutes a small black flag scaled the staff atop the gray prison building. A warden posted a bulletin on the gate, making the customary announcement that Leonard Brigstock had died as prescribed by law.

Mrs. Elst rushed hysterically through the crowd, elbowing aside the police line, and pointed dramatically to the bulletin. "It should read 'murder,'" she shrieked.

Slippery Rock Alumni Meet

New Castle Branch Is Organized Here On Monday Evening

Efforts to form a New Castle branch of Slippery Rock State Teachers college were highly successful when a group of 75 graduates gathered in the Senior high school for an organization meeting Monday evening.

George T. Miller, of the Slippery Rock faculty, was present and gave a talk on "The Value of Unit to the General Alumni." Dr. C. C. Greth who is a Slippery Rock alumnus and a past president of the board of trustees, spoke on "The Value of the Alumni Unit to New Castle and the Value of Slippery Rock to our Alumnus Unit."

An election of officers was held. Theodore Pollock, vice president; Sylvia Lee Martin, secretary; Dr. T. J. McPate treasurer.

The making of a sand picture by Miss Helena Burckart, art teacher at George Washington Junior High school, was of decided interest. Miss Burckart fashioned a landscape from colored sand to the accompaniment of music by Miss Ruth Weir.

Sankey Matthews delighted her hearers with a reading. Special guests were George T. Miller and Mrs. Orville Rigby, both members of Slippery Rock faculty.

Plans were made for a larger meeting probably in the nature of a dinner-meeting in the near future.

Union High Wins Six First Places

In Monday's report of the Lawrence County Music and Forensic contest held at New Wilmington on Saturday, Union Township high school should have been credited with winning the tuba solo event instead of New Castle high it is stated. This was one of the events in which there was no competition. Union High therefore ranked second in the county with six first.

Compensation Measure Is Up

Supplemented Workmen's Compensation Bill Is Before House

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, April 2.—Supplemental administration legislation tightening up administration of workmen's compensation practices in Pennsylvania today was before the House, which is considering the omnibus bill drastically liberalizing compensation payments.

Most important of the supplemental measures was the Tumulty bill increasing from three to five the number of members of the compensation board. The bill revises the board's method of operation, permitting single members to conduct hearings and appeals. At present a quorum of the board must hear all cases and appeals. Two of the board members would be lawyers, a third a physician.

Industrial accidents would have to be reported within seven days, instead of 30, and deaths resulting from industrial accidents within 48 hours instead of 30 days, under amendments to the accident reporting act of 1913 introduced by Rep. C. Fred Metzner, Westmoreland, for the administration. A third bill in the series abolishes existing provision for deduction by the state treasury of the costs of distributing the state workmen's insurance fund to injured workers.

Another bill designed to relieve really taxpayers was introduced in the Senate by Senator Harry Shapiro, Philadelphia. It provides that penalties and interest on delinquent taxes would be abated if the taxes are paid in six semi-annual installments beginning June 1, 1935 and if 1935 taxes are paid before they become delinquent. The bill affects all local realty taxes.

Weekly Health Talk

MIDDLE-AGE AND EXERCISE

"In the customary American manner of doing everything enthusiastically, an ex-college athlete, aged 54, the other day attempted to show members of a visiting hockey team 'some fancy skating.' He gave an impressive account of himself during the first fifteen minutes on the ice, and then collapsed. He was carried from the rink, dead. Sudden and unaccounted exertion thus claimed another victim. And while undoubtedly this is an extreme case, it serves to emphasize that to those of middle-age and older, violent and unusual exercise may be definitely hazardous," states Dr. Edith MacBride-Dexter, state secretary of health.

"While the advantages of physical activities at any age are apparent, moderation is the logical rule for persons no longer young. Sustained and strenuous activities make heavy demands upon the body. Even the youthful athlete is required to pass tests and undergo a careful training period before he is permitted to engage in major sports.

"Perhaps it may be a blow to one's conceit, but the wise middle-

Revamped Liquor System Proposed

Bill Before House Provides For New Liquor Licensing System In State

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, April 2.—A revamped liquor licensing system, giving authority to district boards and removing control from the liquor board and county treasurers, was provided today in a bill before the House sponsored by the Pennsylvania Retail Liquor Dealers' association and introduced by Democratic floor leader Frank W. Ruth, Berks.

The bill would consolidate the present duplicate liquor and beer licenses, the combined permit to be issued by district boards. Five district boards would be created, each of the members paid $6,000 annually and a chairman paid $6,500. Requirements for procuring licenses and restrictions on licensees are changed by the bill.

Licensed establishments, under the bill, would be permitted to sell a quart of liquor or a limited number of bottles of beer for off-premise consumption. At present, retail liquor licensees may sell only for consumption on the premises. The bill does not affect the state liquor store system.

Forty Flee From Apartment Fire In Philadelphia

Nineteen-Year Old Girl Severely Burned, Invalid Boy Cannot Be Moved

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—A 19-year-old girl was critically burned, 15 persons were overcome by smoke and more than 40 residents of the neighborhood were compelled to flee their homes in night attire when a four-story apartment building in the central part of this city was damaged by fire early today.

While firemen fought for more than an hour to check the blaze, an invalid boy, ten-year-old Richard Mitchell, bedridden with a serious intestinal ailment, lay within the burning building. Doctors had warned that any attempt to move the boy might result in his death.

Trapped in her bathroom by the flames, Mrs. Ann Devens, 19, living on the third floor where the fire originated, was taken to Jefferson hospital suffering from first degree burns. Despite her painful burns the girl hung from a third-story window ledge until two policemen rescued her.

Bank Accounts Of Relief "Chislers" Would Be Exposed

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, April 2.—The senate today moved to concur in the Weiss house bill throwing open to inspection by the state relief administrator all bank accounts of persons on relief lists by reporting the measure to the floor. The bill was designed to expose relief "chislers" and make it possible to strike their names from the lists of those receiving governmental aid.

Credit Bureau Heads Will Meet In Butler Sunday

Ray F. Hall, President Of Western District, Calls Session

Managers of the various credit bureaus and their employees from the western district of Pennsylvania will meet in Butler Sunday afternoon, where they will hear an address on "What a Finance Company Wants in a Credit Report and Why."

The meeting has been arranged for Sunday afternoon so that all employees of the various bureaus in the district may attend. There will be a discussion of various credit bureau questions after the address.

Ray F. Hall, manager of the New Castle Credit Bureau, is president of the western district and will have charge of the meeting Sunday afternoon. Several hundred are expected present.

Jewelry Set With Diamonds Involved

T. C. Limber And Mrs. Dorothy Large Both Claim Right To Possession

Jewelry valued at $750 is in controversy in a suit by T. C. Limber, of Linesville, Pa., against Mrs. Dorothy Large, of this city, which is on trial at court before Judge R. L. Hildebrand. The jewelry consists of a diamond butterfly pin set in platinum, one lavalier, silver chain and stone, one diamond bracelet, and one horseshoe pin set with small diamonds.

Limber, who was married to Mrs. Large's mother, claims that a brother had given him the jewelry and that he had given it to his wife to wear. After her death Mrs. Large secured possession of it. Limber, who is again married, now wants the jewelry. Mrs. Large's contention is that the jewelry belonged to her mother and that she has a right to it.

YOGA STANCES AID MENTAL, PHYSICAL POWERS

Above, "serpent stance"; right, "lotus seat"; extreme right, "fish posture."

Most of us are familiar with yoga, that ancient Hindu philosophy, but few of us know that it will aid our mental and physical powers if we submit ourselves to its discipline. So says Francis Yeats-Brown, author of "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer," who spent many years in India. Writing in a current issue of a national magazine he says that the "lotus seat," pictured, is conducive to high class meditation; the "serpent stance," shown above, is a wonderful nerve tonic, and the "fish posture" right, below, aids posture. "Between exercises," Major Yeats-Brown advises, "lie absolutely flat on the floor and relax."

Guffey Coal Bill Reported Favorably

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, April 2.—A senate interstate commerce subcommittee today voted, 14 to 3, to report the Guffey coal bill favorably to the senate.

Senator Neely (D) of West Virginia, chairman of the committee, said the committee reserves the right to suggest amendments to the bill.

The bill provides for government regulation of the bituminous coal industry. It sets up a sinking fund by taxing the industry to retire surplus mines from operation, and re-districts the eastern and southeastern bituminous fields.

Mercer Senator Offers Measure

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, April 2.—How many persons would be thrown out of work and how many additional state police would be needed if the senate concurred with the house in administration legislation outlawing privately paid officers, was the object of a senate resolution today, introduced by Senator Glen R. Law. The resolution asks superintendent of state police Lynn G. Adams to give the senate his best estimates on both figures desired. The resolution was sent to committee for consideration.

Culbertsons See Lead Dwindle As Tourney Resumes

(International News Service)
 NEW YORK, April 2.—The Sims-Culbertson contract bridge battle failed to be a proving ground for the new scoring system celebrating its baptismal fire.

Despite the fact that it was predicted the reductions in grand slam bonuses would make it doubly difficult for P. Hal Sims and his wife to cut down the commanding lead of Ely Culbertson and Mrs. Culbertson, the Sims team today were only 5940 points behind. They have lopped off 3440 points in the last 24 hours.

New Wilmington High Will Play Cream Of County

All-Opponents Team Selected By New Wilmington Players Will Play Friday

EAST BROOK HI FLOOR IS SCENE

East Brook high school basketball floor Friday night will see a most unusual basketball game. Two games in fact, with the first game scheduled to get under way at 7:30 o'clock. The game, known as "Pick," will be played between the New Wilmington high and Lawrence county league champions, to play a team composed of players chosen by the New Wilmington high players as the cream of the opponents who faced them this year.

This is a most unusual dish, but is bound to be a menu of basketball that will have the fans hanging onto their seats. The preliminary game will also have the earmarks of a title match with the Lakewood Trans. claimants to the county independent championship, meeting the First Baptist church team, champions of the Sunday school league of New Castle.

Best In County
The games will be played as benefit for the East Brook A. C. to help promote their summer activities. Coach Emerick of East Brook high has kindly consented to act as coach of the All-Opponents team. East Brook high will supply the uniforms for the players.

All of the following players are asked to meet at the Sporting Goods Store on East Washington street, New Castle, at 7 o'clock Friday night to be transported to the East Brook high gym:

Shenagon high—Laitenen, Horvath, McCannay.

Bessemer high—Thompson, Shoup, Mt. Jackson—Stephenson.

Union—George Schaefer.

East Brook—Waddington, Kendall.

Union A. A. To Meet Tonight

Union A. A. members will meet tonight at the Union high school building at 7:30 o'clock for a business session. The meeting was originally scheduled for Wednesday night, but had to be changed owing to school activities.

H. W. "Bill" Sontum, requests that all members try and attend this meeting as considerable business of importance is to come before the members and association for disposal tonight.

BOSTON BRAVES TO PLAY YANKS

(International News Service)
ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., April 2. Following a day of rest, the Boston Braves were ready today for their final game in the series with the New York Yankees. Bob Brown was the tribal pitching choice. The scheduled game with Toronto tomorrow has been cancelled and the club will break camp and head north tomorrow night.

A thousand wives and a hundred barbers will thank us for this nudge.

It's addressed to the men who haven't planned on even a haircut for Easter. You know... the well meaning chaps who are signing partnership papers with old age without realizing it.

First you need a haircut... and New Castle has lots of good barbers. Next you need an Easter hat and New Castle has loads of fine hats (you see we're not selfish).

Of course we'd like to have you come here for the hat but we'd rather have you go somewhere else than see you on Easter morning in the old hat you're wearing.

Plenty Of Trout In State Streams

State Fish Commission Urges Anglers Stay Out Of Headwater Streams

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, April 2.—Pennsylvania fishermen preparing for the opening of the trout season two weeks hence today were assured by the state fish commission of a bountiful supply of these species as the result of last year's extensive stocking program.

Over 1,300,000 legal size brook, brown and rainbow trout ranging in length from 6 to 12 inches were released in streams throughout the state. In conjunction with this program, about 2,170,000 brook and brown fingerlings were stocked in feeder or headwater streams.

The commission appealed to the anglers to refrain from casting in the headwater streams, explaining that most of the fingerlings in such waters are still under the required six-inch length and would only have to be tossed back if caught. Fingerlings, it was pointed out, eventually make their way into the main waters after attaining average size.

St. Michaels Are Honored At Party

Church League Champions Honored By Charles Dluganski Monday Night

St. Michaels church basketball team, church league champions, was honored last night at the home of Business Manager Charles Dluganski on South Moravia street.

The affair was one of the finest of its kind ever held and proved fitting for the champions in every respect. Coach Michael "Jake" Babovsky, James "Shimmy" Balla, Andy Motzko, Walter Chernyavsky, Mackiewicz, Hnat, Johnny Slosernick, Mike Slosernick, Johnny Carik were the honored guests. Special guests present included members of the St. Michaels "B" team, Duke T. Sesto, Chabak, H. Dluganski, Mehalec, E. Sesto, A. Danish, Johnny Golba, Johnny Sinkner and Johnny Stofick. Several other invited guests attended.

Tulsa Stenos Again Win National Basketball Title

Defeating Holdenville, Okla. Flyers in the finals at Wichita, Kas., by a score of 26 to 18, the Tulsa Stenos, national A. A. basketball champions, are pictured above, left to right, Martha Hickman, Cotton Wilkie, Juanita Hawks, Alberta Williams, Joe Langerman, Velma Walcott, Gene Langerman, Lillian Justice, Leota Barham and Sonny Dunlop. The team also was 1934 champion.

Davis Walsh Picks Cardinals To Repeat

Says Giants Will Be Serious Contenders, But Lack Championship Quality

Thinks Cards Have Best Balanced Team In League, Pirates May Finish High

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, April 2.—Being an impetuous fellow and utterly fearless, I am naming the world's champion St. Louis Cardinals to win the national league championship in 1935, thus running strictly true to precedent. I find I can generally be depended upon in any emergency to come right out and boldly approve of success.

At that, a surprising number of baseball men in the south like the Giants, apparently figuring that Bartell will give them a major league shortstop and their pitching will give them the rest. However, the fact is that the Giants weren't nearly as good a ball club as the Cardinals last year, and while they have bettered their hand a bit, the improvement hasn't been enough. The Giants, briefly had their chance last year, and, in the show down, just didn't have it. They still haven't.

Depends On Pitching

The pitching, for instance, is good—but no better than the Cards. Hubbell, I suspect, will never again have a year like 1933 Parmelee, on the other hand, will be available over a complete campaign and figures to make up for this. But men like Jackson and Critz in the infield won't or at least shouldn't go 154 games—and what have we in the meantime?

Why, of course, Mark Koenig the all around infielder. I think this means that he's all around the grounds and so is the ball. In other words Koenig plays all four positions and none of them right.

That, anyhow, is my idea of why the Giants won't win—and here's a few more, calculated to support the belief that the Cards will.

The Deans won't be worse; at least one of them will be even better. So will the pitching (Branch Rickey is even starting to give them away before the club comes north) Any club with hitting like Collins, Martin, Frisch, Medwick, Delancy and Rothrock can furnish simply doesn't figure to finish second. Moreover, Terry Moore looks like quite a man in centerfield. Furthermore, the Cards failed in 1933 because they had no shortstop. They now have two.

Puts Pirates Third

Anyhow, this is the way I'm calling them—and what you call me is something you'll have to decide for yourself:

- 1.—St. Louis Cardinals
- 2.—New York Giants
- 3.—Pittsburgh Pirates
- 4.—Brooklyn Dodgers
- 5.—Chicago Cubs
- 6.—Phillies
- 7.—Boston Braves
- 8.—Cincinnati Reds

Quite so, the Dodgers fourth, the Cubs fifth and the Braves seventh. In other words, I sincerely believe that Ruth will be a great help to the other seven clubs. The Braves finished fourth last year with a nothing-ball club.

Soft Ball Notes

ST. ANDREW'S TO MEET

St. Andrew's church softball team will have a workout at Gaston Park Field Wednesday night at 5:30 o'clock, it was announced by Business Manager Keith Van Fossan. Tommy Evans has been elected as playing manager. The following will be with St. Andrew's team this year—Steve Bender, J. Teplica, Ronnie Thomas, Dick Jones, Jack Jones, F. Neyman, Mike Kulich, A. Owens, Pascarella, W. Small, Ches Rowe, George Mike, Bob Kneram, Wilson, Tommy Jones, Morgan, Miron, W. Laurel, also Frank Babs and Frank Picarri are to be with the Saints this year. Babs is asked to get in touch with Keith Van Fossan. William Wignall counselor for the St. Andrews Men's Club give the boys

Soft Ball Loop Has Ten Teams

Plan To Open Season April 29 With Ten Teams Seeking Championship

FINE MEETING HELD AT "Y"

New Castle Soft Ball Association is growing with leaps and bounds. This year ten fast teams will make up the New Castle City Soft Ball league. The season's opening date is tentatively set as Monday, April 29, providing the fields are in shape for play. An enthusiastic meeting was held at the "Y" last night with President Charles P. Walther presiding.

President Walther introduced Norman Buckingham and Lawrence Conti two of the Board of Commissioners to the managers and officials last night. Both Buckingham and Conti outlined programs to be followed by the Board this year in making decisions and taking up disputes. The absent Board member was Arnold "Fiz" Fraser.

The managers adopted the Goldsmith No. 44 ball as the official ball for the league this year, and also adopted rule books to be used by all managers and umpires. The matter of umpires was brought up and it was decided to have each team select two men as umpires this year. The umpires will be given instructions.

Schedule To Be Made

President Walther appointed the following schedule committee to draw up the schedule for 1935. The committee will meet with Mr. Walther Sunday to draft a program of games. The committee consists of Lutz of the Radiators, VanFossan of the St. Andrews, Joe Diana of the Unions and Henry Engs of the Tolans. The teams will play three game each week.

The matter of player contracts was taken up and it was voted upon to have all contracts turned into the league secretary prior to the opening of the season. Each team is allowed 18 players, under an open list.

It was also voted upon that all players must participate in 10 games during the season to be eligible for championship play at the end of the season, and that all pitchers in the championship series must have pitched at least five games with the team on which he signed up.

The Board of Commissioners was empowered to draw up a set of recommendations for the league outside of the rule books, to be known as local soft ball rules.

The following managers attended the meeting: Radiators, G. Lutz and Howard Reed; Saks, Kelly and Shaffit; West Side Merchants, Ted Kolec; Keystone, A. Venditto; Catholics, "Gabby" DeCaprio; Croton, Lyndy Aven; Unions, Joe Diana; Tolans, Henry Engs; St. Andrews, Keith VanFossan and Bill Parker. The Pump Stations team was not represented last night.

Church Golfers To Dine Thursday

First Presbyterian Church To Be Scene Of Church League Banquet

New Castle church league golfers will have a general round-up and banquet at the First Presbyterian church at 6:30 o'clock Thursday evening. The banquet is open to everybody in the church league who cares to attend.

Tickets for the dinner are in the hands of team captains. A fine program of entertainment has been lined up for the occasion, with Sam Lewis as chairman of the program committee. Attorney Thomas W. Dickey has consented to speak on "My Golf Game." President Jack Waddington and Secretary Dr. R. C. Gilmore have made most of the arrangements for the banquet and Russ Magill has looked after the menu and tickets.

Especially the league would like to have the Mahoning churches and the East Side churches send as many representatives as they can to the banquet. It looks as if the banquet would draw a crowd of over 100.

East Brook A. A. Planning Banquet For Floor Teams

Date Of April 30 Chosen For Banquet To Girls And Boys Basketball Teams

East Brook A. A. will again start off the spring activity with a basketball banquet in honor of the East Brook High girls and boys teams. The banquet date has been set for April 30. The time is 6:30 o'clock and the place will be East Brook High.

All reservations for tickets must be in the hands of the committee one week before the banquet, as no tickets will be sold at the door. Tickets may be secured from Miss Edna Waddington, phone 8094-R4, from Mrs. Omar Fink, Lakewood, phone 8009 R-5 or Mrs. Gail McNellis, secretary, phone 8009R-2.

The banquet last year was a big success, but this year President Lou Harlan and his committee are planning an even bigger and better banquet, and entertainment. A fine menu has been chosen by F. J. Waddington, chairman of the menu committee. Those desiring to attend the banquet get in touch with the above persons as soon as possible.

Former Coach At W. & J. Dies In Idaho, Is Report

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, April 2.—Ralph F. Hutchinson, 59, once football coach at Washington and Jefferson college, Washington, Pa., and coach at the University of Idaho for the last 15 years, was dead at Moscow, Idaho, friends learned here Monday. His mother lives in Pittsburgh and the body will be brought here for burial.

THE SPORT PATROL

By JOHN J. MAHER, JR.

LISTEN TO THIS

Man O' War, now a granddaddy, living in retirement on a farm, recently celebrated his 18th birthday. He's one old timer who isn't a sound argument for those who claim the athletes are short lived. It is reported that the New York Giants will train in the Republic of Panama next spring. When Babe Ruth failed to appear in a recent exhibition game of the Boston Braves, the grandstand yodelers began the chorus "We want Ruth." "Shut up," bellowed a merry widow, and the opposite side of the field "Babe's got a bellyache." Ken Strong, professional football star, had to give up his idea of staging a comeback in baseball with Brooklyn. His wrist still bothers him when batting. Strong, when a youngster belonging to Detroit, showed unusual promise as a batter.

The many fans who have been anxiously awaiting an article on Jack Doyle, the imported Irishman, will have to sit back patiently until the Dempsey-Freidman protege does some fighting. The Patrol is a sports column, not a Broadway gossip-giv-er of a Polls review. Until Jack pugilist instead of on the dance floor with merry widow, and exercises his muscles on sparring partners instead of exercising his vocal chords on "Mother Macree" his activities will be taken care of by Walter Winchell, Louelle Parsons, etc. Just a week before the Grand National steeplechase, Frank Pur-long, son of the winner's father, tossed a coin to decide whether to ride Reynoldstown or his father's other entry, Really True.

Joe Greensberg, young brother of Hank, first baseman of the Detroit Tigers, plays shortstop for the New York University nine. Basketball Coach George Edwards, of Missouri university is going to use 16,000 shots at a basket to prove his point that a larger basket is needed in the game. Athletes of the school were used in the experiment in which half of the shots were aimed at the regulation basket of 18 inch diameter and the other half directed toward a goal with a diameter of 20 inches. The result was that only 36 per cent of the shots at the basket of regulation size were successful while 44 per cent of the tries at the larger one were good. The shortest bowler entered in the A. B. C. tournament at Syracuse, N. Y., is J. S. Finch, 4 feet 2 inches, the tallest is S. W. Winn, 8 feet, 4 inches.

If there is a university in the country that can better Santa Clara in the matter of odd and varied nicknames, we haven't as yet run across it. Clipper, Bomber, Patches, Salty, Flash, Buck, Frisky, King, Ham, Schoolhouse, Hook, are only a portion of the boys that do things athletically for the Broncos. There is quite a selection from which

Foreign Governments Owe U.S. $12,210,733,779

Staggering War Debt Total
Is Revealed Through
Figures Today

Great Britain Heads List Of
Debtors With $4,793,186,
319—France Next

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, April 2.—Foreign governments owed the United States a grand total of $12,210,733,779 as of March 1, the treasury announced today in a general statement concerning these obligations.

Of that amount $11,842,533,555 has been "funded." The unfunded debt showed $346,851,920 owed by Russia, $20,911,412 by Armenia and $436,491 by Nicaragua.

Indebtedness of the principal debtors was given as follows:
Great Britain, $4,793,186,319; France, $4,000,902,726; Italy, $2,011,067,001; Belgium, $416,422,141; Poland, $229,966,806 and Czechoslovakia, $165,379,652.

In Arrears Plenty
As of March 1 the foreign governments were in arrears $638,818,220. Great Britain led the list with $379,461,776. Other principal debtors in arrears were:

France, $163,616,843; Italy, $30,570,196; Belgium, $21,578,361; Poland, $22,972,909; Czechoslovakia, $6,218,524 and Greece $3,049,393.

Finland, which owes a total of $8,636,625, was not in arrears.

From March 1 to July 1 a total of $180,909,501 is due on the debts, the bulk of which is payable June 15. Great Britain owes $55,670,765 that date, France $64,367,137 and Italy $15,141,593.

Patrol Leaders Of Girl Scouts Have Discussion

City-Wide Meeting Of Troop
Patrol Leaders Conducted
At Epworth M. E.

A very enthusiastic and lively meeting of all the Girl Scout patrol leaders of the city was held on Saturday in the Epworth M. E. church at 2 p. m. Miss Eleanor LeFevre was in charge with Mrs. Virginia Irwin of Troop No. 11 assisting. This meeting was held that the girls might make suggestions for community work and for projects the individual troops wish to start. Under Miss LeFevre's sympathetic guidance, songs were sung, games played and the girls were divided into groups to discuss their plans for the next year. From these discussion groups came many valuable suggestions which the local council with the help of the leaders will try to put into effect. Especial emphasis seemed to come from all sides as to the desire for a better outdoor program and especially during the summer. It is hoped the day camp for the month of July will take care of this request, but the troops can do much in this line, too.

It is interesting to note the girls seem to have a real desire to help the council in raising money to carry on the work. Many suggestions were made as to ways and means. There was a large demand for more nature work in many forms: handicraft, singing and folk dancing. It was suggested each troop plant a tree on Arbor Day; that the trees in Gaston Park be marked and nature trails be laid there. There was a great demand for a troop house in one of the parks which they could beautify.

There seemed to be a great desire for some general get-togethers for all the troops: such as, a jamboree, a picnic, a skating party, swimming party or picnic hike.

It was also suggested that the girls scouts have as much publicity as the boys and that they edit a newspaper of their own, with a reporter from each group.

Ice cream was served at the end of the meeting.

These suggestions will be taken up by a joint meeting of the leaders and council to be held the latter part of April at which time plans will be made as to how they can be best carried out.

It is hoped this will be made an annual affair.

BROTHER OF LOCAL RESIDENTS IS DEAD

Word has been received here of the death of Wendell P. Wade, aged 38, who died at the Jefferson hospital, Philadelphia.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Ella Eby Wade, who prior to her marriage four years ago resided in Lancaster; his mother, Mrs. Carrie M. Wade of North Washington, and the following brothers and sisters: George W. Wade of Harrisburg; Kenneth B. of Lancaster; Arthur H. of New Castle; R. DeWayne of Detroit; Kermit D. of North Washington; Mrs. Faye Boyard of New Castle, and Mrs. Jayne Cooper of Slippery Rock.

Benjamin Disraeli, the Earl of Beaconsfield, in his youth was a novelist of some eminence, and in his novels was among the first to point to the amelioration of the wretched lot of the working classes as a social duty of the aristocrats.

In Market
Today

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, April 2.—Large scale
dealings in utility shares were today and their rise imparted a firm tone
to the general list.

Consolidated Gas and Columbia
Gas were particularly active. Pacific
Gas hit a new high for the year.
Oils also displayed a further tendency to advance. Motor shares pointed higher. Chrysler was in demand. Accessories were firm.

Loew's was strong and active in the amusements. National Biscuit
foods. Mining issues were quiet and penny. Aviation was higher. J. C.
Penny was weak in the stores.
Commodities were irregular, bonds firm and foreign exchanges quiet.

OF AUTOMOBILE

ELLWOOD CITY, April 2.—Steven Saltez, Zelienople, aged 11, died of a fractured skull in the Ellwood City hospital at 8:35 Monday evening after being struck by an automobile.

The accident occurred about 4:30 yesterday on Route 68 according to information received by County Coroner Orville Potter. Charles T. Trehoer of Beaver Falls was the driver of the car.

Young Saltez was roller skating on the highway in the same direction that Trehoer was traveling. The youth suddenly fell on the road directly in the path of his car. Trehoer could not avoid the accident. He took the injured lad to an office of a near-by physician who later rushed him to the local hospital, where he died.

Coroner Potter is investigating the accident and may hold an inquest later on. The deceased is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Saltez of Zelienople.

Each Evening At 7:45
In U. P. Church

ELLWOOD CITY, April 2.—Beginning this evening at 7:45 all churches of the city will unite for evangelistic meetings, which will last until April 14.

The meetings will be conducted by
Rev. H. H. Halley, D. D., of Chicago.
Dr. Halley has memorized the entire Bible in abbreviated form. He will talk on the scriptures tonight.

A large union choir under the direction of Rev. B. G. Osterhouse of the First Baptist church, will responder special music each evening.

Atheletic Club Is Formed At FriscoArt Milnes Is Elected Temporary President Of Organization At Meeting

ELLWOOD CITY, April 2.—About 60 people of Frisco and vicinity assembled in the Fisher hotel last night and organized an athletic club to be known as the Pastime Athletic club for youths and grown-ups.

The meeting was active and plans were fully discussed and adopted.
They will be furthered at the next meeting. Preliminary plans include a baseball team for men and a mushball team for girls. Activities in the club will include educational talks and social functions.

The result of the temporary election last night was as follows:
President, Arthur Milnes, vice presidents, Clara Gordon, Mary Ella
Gordon and Jake McKinney; secretary-treasurer, Ben Bartle, Sr.; recording secretary, Marion Milnes.

The newly formed club will hold another meeting Friday.

Club Meets With
Miss Sharpe Here

ELLWOOD CITY, April 2.—Members of the Cosmopolitan club met at the home of Miss Frances Sharpe on Fifth street last night for their regular meeting.

Bridge was the chief diversion of the evening with two tables in play.
Miss Cori Swartz and Mrs. Phyllis
Zeigler were presented with the high score award at the conclusion of the games.

At an appointed hour a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess with the assistance of her aunt, Mrs.
J. D. Kirk. The club will meet again in two weeks with Miss Swartz on Park avenue.

Autos Sideswipe
Here On Monday

ELLWOOD CITY, April 2.—Two cars received twelve dollars damage
each when they sideswiped here yesterday.

Ralph Strouse of Wampum avenue was traveling north on Fifth street and had stopped for a red light at the intersection of Fountain avenue.
When the light had turned green
there was another car in front of Strouse that was stalled. He proceeded to pull around it. At the same time a car behind him driven by Gus Tetmer started to do the same thing. As a result the two cars sideswiped.

Eight Russian Bandits Slain

Campaign To Wipe Out Banditry In Soviet Russia Has Resulted In 30 Executions

(International News Service) MOSCOW, April 2.—With eight more executions before firing squads, bringing the total shot this week to 30, the campaign to wipe out new waves of armed banditry in Moscow and Leningrad continued today.

The supreme court broke up one gang that wore uniforms and robbed apartments under the pretext of being police making house investigations. Three were sentenced to death and several were ordered imprisoned for ten years, including one woman who shared in the bandit's loot.

Two members of the same gang had previously been slain in a gun fight with police as they resisted arrest.

Two more were executed for a series of robberies of street car conductors as they returned to car barns late at night.

At Leningrad a special panel of the district court, established to deal with bandits, sentenced three to death and one to ten years in prison for three robberies involving murder.

HIGHLIGHT YOUR HAIR

Hair cannot be beautiful when it is dull, faded, streaked. And even the prettiest hair can be made more attractive by giving it added lustre and radiance. Lovalon will do it! It will make more vivid your hair's natural color, give it glowing highlights, and an even, blended tone. Lovalon is simple to use—a few minutes after each shampoo works marvels. Lovalon does not bleach, does not dye—it is an odorless, natural vegetable rinse which affects the hair in no way except to make it more radiantly beautiful.

Bobby Edwards Enters Appeal To State Board

(International News Service) HARRISBURG, April 2.—Flatly asserting his innocence, Bobby Edwards, 22-year-old mining engineer scheduled to die in the electric chair May 6 for the "American tragedy" slaying of Freda McKech-nie, 27, on Monday appealed to the pardon board for commutation of sentence.

His case will be heard April 17, the regular monthly meeting of the board.

In his application, filed by defense attorneys, Frank A. McGulgan, Frank McGulgan, Jr., and John C. Phillips, Edwards asserted he is not guilty of killing Freda, that even if he was the death penalty was too harsh a sentence and that a juror, John Luft, had pre-judged his case, thus preventing a fair trial.

On Sunday evening a severe loss was sustained by Mrs. Rhoades and son, Clare, when in some manner the smoke and coal house was burned to the ground. The men and boys of the community responded quickly and by forming a bucket brigade, managed to save the house, although the flames spread and the eaves caught fire. The house is of brick and it is only because of this that they were able to conquer the flames. Considerable damage was done to both the roof and the upstairs parts of the house.

In Long Island Sound the oyster's spawning season occurs from May to August.
